

By the Numbers: Trump's ACA Sabotage

By Raymond Castro
Director of Health Policy
castro@njpp.org

700,000 New Jerseyans who remain uninsured in 2016.

80 percent Cut in federal funding for navigators to help uninsured find insurance coverage.

40,000 Drop in enrollment of middle class New Jerseyans in the individual market, the first drop since the ACA was enacted.

22,000 Drop in enrollment of New Jersey parents and children in Medicaid, the first drop in enrollment since the ACA was enacted.

19 percent Increase in premium costs in New Jersey since 2017, the single largest increase since the ACA was enacted.

$125,000,000 Cumulative increase in insurance costs in 2018 for 137,000 New Jerseyans insured through the market.

$3,600 Typical increase in yearly insurance costs for a New Jersey family without federal subsidies.

$50,000 Federal decrease in Medicaid funding for New Jersey.

22 percent Decrease in enrollment in the Marketplace by Hispanics due to fear of Trump administration's anti-immigrant policies.

11.8 percent New Jersey's preliminary uninsured rate in 2017, a 1.2 percent increase from 2016.

$100,000,000 Lost federal premium subsidies due to 25,000 decrease in enrollment in the Marketplace.